- (7) The Member Parliament hosting a Session of the Plenary Assembly shall provide all necessary facilities and services for the Session as per the cost-sharing agreement concluded with the Office of the Secretary General.

Rule 24 Hours of Meeting

- (1) Sittings shall, unless the Plenary Assembly otherwise resolve, ordinarily commence at 09:00 in the morning up to 13:00 in the afternoon, and resume at 15:00 in the afternoon and conclude at 18:00.
- (2) The President may, in consultation with the Parliamentary Business Sub-Committee, suspend a sitting or adjourn the Plenary Assembly.

- (3) The President shall at the close of business of a meeting announce the time and date of the next meeting.
- (4) The President may, in consultation with the Parliamentary Business Sub-Committee, call a sitting of the Plenary Assembly before the date or time to which it has been adjourned or at a time after the Plenary Assembly has adjourned sine die.
- (5) The Plenary Assembly shall ordinarily not sit on a day which is a gazetted public holiday in the Member State in which its Sitting is at the time.
- (6) Subject to these rules, the sittings of the Plenary Assembly and its Committees shall be open to the public.

Rule 25                    Routine of Business

Unless these Rules otherwise permit, the daily routine of business shall be as follows:

- (a) Moment of silent prayer or meditation;
- (b) Introduction of new Members;
- (c) Announcements by the President;
- (e) Giving of notices of Motions; and
- (f) Requests for leave to move the adjournment of the Plenary Assembly on matters of urgent regional importance.

Rule 26                    Motions

- (1) A Member may introduce a Motion in the Plenary Assembly.
- (2) A Member shall give written notice of a Motion to the Secretary General at least 15 days before the sitting at which the Motion is intended to be moved.
- (3) Before giving notice of Motion, a Member shall deliver to the Secretary General a copy of the proposed Motion in writing and signed by himself or herself and the Secretary General shall submit the same to the President.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provision of sub-rule (2), a Member may, with leave of the President, give oral notice of a Motion during a sitting but the Motion shall not be placed on the Order of Business until one clear day has elapsed since the notice was given, unless the President is of the opinion that it is urgent and in the public interest that it should be placed on the order of business prior to the expiration of one day.

- (5) An oral notice of Motion shall be reduced into writing and handed to the Secretary General before notice is given to the Plenary Assembly.
- (6) In the Plenary Assembly, the question upon a Motion or amendment shall not be proposed by the President unless the Motion or amendment has been seconded.

Rule 27 Admissibility of Motions

- (1) Any Motion which in the opinion of the President, contains derogatory, disrespectful, offensive or unbecoming references to a Head of State or Government, Assembly or its Members, or the President, or contains unbecoming expressions or is of a frivolous nature or offends against these Rules or is otherwise out of order shall not be admissible.
- (2) No Motion may be moved which is the same in substance as a Motion which has been resolved, in the affirmative or in the negative, during the same session but a Motion to rescind the decision of such a Motion may be moved with the permission of the President.

Rule 28 Amendment of Notices of Motion

The President may allow a Member to move, in amended form, a Motion of which notice has been given, if in the opinion of the President the amendment does not materially alter a principle embodied in the original Motion.

Rule 29 Moving Motions

- (1) A Member who has a Motion standing in his or her name may authorize, in writing, another Member to move the Motion in his or her stead.
- (2) Where a Member fails to move a Motion at the time prescribed by the Parliamentary Business Sub-Committee such Motion shall not be put on the Order Paper again during the same session except with leave of the President.

Rule 30 Withdrawal of Motion

- (1) A notice of Motion may be withdrawn by the mover before it is put on the Order Paper.
- (2) A Motion or an amendment to the Motion may be withdrawn at the request of the mover, by leave of the House or Committee, before the question is put.
- (3) A Motion may be withdrawn by the mover before the question is put. A Motion or an amendment withdrawn under this rule may be proposed again, if, in case of a Motion, notice required by these Rules is given. Where the question has been proposed on an amendment to a Motion, the original Motion may not be withdrawn until the amendment to the Motion has been disposed of.

Rule 31 Motion Which May be Moved Without Notice

The following Motions may be moved without notice-

- a) a Motion for the adjournment of the Plenary Assembly;
- b) a Motion for adjournment of a debate;
- c) a Motion for the suspension of Rules of Procedure; and
- d) a Motion raising a question of privilege.

Rule 32 Manner of Debating Motion and Amendments Thereto

- (1) When a Motion has been moved, the President shall propose a question on the Motion in the same terms as the Motion, and debate may then take place upon that question.
- (2) At the conclusion of the debate, the President shall put the question.
- (3) When a Motion is under consideration in the Plenary Assembly, an amendment may be proposed to the Motion if it is relevant.
- (4) An amendment to be moved and seconded in the Plenary shall be required by the President to be put in writing by the mover and delivered to the Secretary General.

- (5) An amendment shall not be permitted if, in the opinion of the President, it substantially alters the principle of the Motion proposed.

Rule 33 Order in the Plenary Assembly and Rules of Debate

(1) *Members in Plenary

Members shall at all times show respect to the President and observe the decorum of the Plenary Assembly.

(2) *Member to Address himself or herself to President

The President shall recognise a Member to speak and the Member shall rise from his or her seat to speak unless physically challenged.

(3) *Mode of Debate and Time Limits

A Member shall as far as possible not read his or her speech but may refresh his or her memory by reference to notes.

A Member shall speak for a maximum of five minutes unless the speaking time is varied by the Parliamentary Business Sub-Committee.

A Motion that has been moved shall be concluded by the close of the business in that particular Session of the Plenary Assembly.

A Member having moved or seconded a Motion for the adjournment of a debate without discussing the main question shall be entitled to speak again on the main question.

(4) *Order at Commencement of Business and on Adjournment

At the commencement of business and when the Plenary Assembly adjourns or business is suspended, Members shall rise in their places until the President or other Member presiding has entered or left the Chamber, as the case may be.

(5) *Rights of Members to Speak to Question

- (a) Every Member shall have the right to speak to any question before the Plenary Assembly.

- (b) No member shall interrupt another member whilst speaking unless-
  - (i) to call attention to a point of order or breach of privilege suddenly arising;
  - (ii) to call attention to the want of a quorum; and
  - (iii) to call attention to the presence of members of the public.

(6) *Limitation of Speech

No Member shall speak more than once to a question, except in explanation or reply, such explanation being allowed only in case a material part of his or her speech has been misquoted or misunderstood, but he or she may not introduce any new matter, and no debate shall be allowed upon such explanation.

(7) *When Point of Order Raised

Upon a point of order being raised, the Member called to order shall resume his or her seat, and, after the point of order has been stated to the President by the member raising it, the President shall give his or her ruling or decision thereon, and may do so forthwith.

(8) *Rules to be Observed by Member Speaking

No Member shall, while speaking-

- (a) use derogatory, disrespectful, offensive or unbecoming words against a Head of State or Government, the Plenary Assembly or its members, the President, nor refer to any matter on which a judicial decision is pending in a Member State; and
- (b) use his or her right of speech for the purpose of obstructing the proceedings of the Plenary Assembly, abusing the rules or misusing the forms of the Plenary Assembly;

(9) *Question Put When Debate Concluded

When a Motion has been moved and seconded, the President or the Chairperson shall propose the question for the consideration, and shall put it for the decision, of the Plenary Assembly or the Committee.

(10) Reply of Mover of Motion Closes Debate

Save with the unanimous concurrence of the Plenary Assembly to the contrary, in all cases the reply of the mover of the original Motion shall close the debate.

(11) Maintenance of Order in Plenary and Committees

Order shall be maintained in the Plenary Assembly by the President and by the Chairperson in Committees.

(12) Precedence of President

Whenever the President rises during a debate, any Member then speaking or offering to speak shall sit down, and the Member shall be silent so that the President may be heard without interruption.

(13) Irrelevance or Repetition

The President after having called to order any Member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition either of his or her own arguments or of those used by other Members in debate, or who disregards any ruling or observation made from the President which defines or restricts the scope of any debate, may direct such Member to discontinue his or her speech.

(14) Members not Explaining or Retracting

Any Member, having used objectionable words and not explaining or retracting them or offering apologies for the use thereof to the satisfaction of the Plenary Assembly, shall be dealt with as the President may think fit; and any Member called to order shall resume his or her seat unless permitted to explain.

(15) Disorderly Conduct in Plenary

The President shall order a Member whose conduct is grossly disorderly to withdraw immediately from the precincts of the Plenary Assembly for the remainder of that day's Sitting.

CHAPTER IX

JOURNALS AND RECORDS OF THE PLENARY ASSEMBLY

Rule 34   Records and Journals of the Plenary Assembly

All proceedings of the Plenary Assembly shall be recorded by the Secretary General and shall constitute the Journals of the Plenary Assembly.

Rule 35   Custody of Journals and Records

The custody of the Journals and records of the Plenary Assembly, including all papers and accounts presented to or belonging to the Plenary, shall be in the Secretary General.

Rule 36   Hansard Reports

- (1) A verbatim report of the proceedings of each sitting shall be drawn up as a multilingual document in which all oral contributions appear in their original language.
- (2) Speakers may make corrections to typescripts of their oral contributions within five working days. Corrections shall be sent within that deadline to the Forum Secretariat.
- (3) The multilingual verbatim report shall be published as an annex to the Official Journal of the Plenary Assembly and preserved in the records of the Forum.
- (4) A translation into any official language of an extract from the verbatim report shall be made on request from a Member. If necessary, the translation shall be provided at short notice.
